

Contents

- Regulations – Obligation to inform and advise sellers
- Principles of precaution and risk assessment
- Understanding the consequences of a fall on the system
- Recommendations on maintaining and storing Petzl PPE
- Tools for responding to customers
- Selection and practical use of fall protection PPE suited to the environment: harnesses, lanyards, mobile fall arresters for rope, helmets, basic rigging equipment, tool lanyards
- Differentiation between fall arrest, work positioning and restraint systems
- Understanding and placement of permanent and temporary anchors
- Tools for responding to customers
- Pre-use checks & maintenance of safety PPE
- Advice on Petzl PPE database

Why this training?

- To learn about using Petzl PPE in conjunction with working systems in order to give better sales advice.
- To understand the differences between fall arrest, work positioning and restraint systems, in order to give better sales advice.

For whom?

- Dealers
- Technical sales reps
- Petzl Technical Institutes
- Petzl Technical Partners

Goals

- Know the Petzl PPE intended for work at height
- Know the consequences of a fall on the system
- Select and use fall protection PPE suited to the environment, anchor points & system/s
- Know the regulations for work at height and PPE

© 2020 David Doughty

Prerequisites

- None

Duration

- 2 days (practical workshops)

Documents provided

- Technical documents
- Module handouts

Price ex GST $POA

- Travel & accommodation costs may apply for training on your site.

Venue

- Training can be done at Petzl Technical Institute's or your venue as long as it meets the venue requirements.

Certification

- Record of attendance