

RAD System module

VD054

Contents

- Introduction to the RAD System
- Demonstration of basic functions.
- Instructions for use
- Practical exercises – basic functions
 - Installation
 - Safety features
 - Lift & lowering
- Product experience
- Demonstration of rescue techniques
- Practical exercises
- Inspection
- Managing PPE

Why this training?

- The objectives of this module are to understand the recommendations for using the Petzl RAD System allows you to get out of various tricky situations from adventure, alpine, tactical or professional activity sites

•Prerequisites

- work at height module and/or rope access training as a minimum

•Duration

- 1 day

•Documents provided

- Technical documents
- Certificate of attendance

•Price ex GST $POA

For whom?

- Military technicians and trainers
- Alpinist / mountaineers
- Petzl technical sales reps
- Petzl Technical Institutes
- Petzl Technical Partners

Goals

- Understand the function of the RAD System
- Be able to operate the RAD System
- Be able to complete pre-use checks of IRAD System

Interested in this module contact us email: daivd@petzltechnicalinsitiute.com.au

Address: Unit 12 / 87 Reserve Road Artarmon, NSW, 2064