

Partner rescue module

– Setup and technical content for PTP/s, trainer/s & assessor/s

VDO0017

©2023 David Doughty

Prerequisites

- Have first aid training
- Completion of the PPE inspection module and the Partner rescue module
- Completion of National Workplace Trainer & Assessor qualification (TAE)

Duration

- 1 day

Documents provided

- Supporting documentation for Petzl TP

Price ex GST $POA

- Ideally in a mountain setting or simulated facility. Travel & accommodation costs may apply for training on your site.

Venue

- At Petzl Technical Partner's venue – has to meet the requirements to run the module.

Certification

- Record of attendance

Contents

- Know how to conduct the following sessions:
- What is partner rescue? Why train for rescue?
- The five stages of rescue. What are the hazards?
- Rescue tools and systems
- JAG Rescue Kit presentation
- Using the JAG Rescue Kit in different scenarios
- Limitations of partner rescue and of the system
- Using the JAG Rescue Kit and a mobile fall arrester for rope
- Rescue using accompanied descent techniques

Why this training?

- To help instructors present content, and develop the knowledge of students in the Partner rescue module.

For whom?

- Petzl Technical Institutes
- Petzl Technical Partners

Goals

- Conduct and present the Petzl partner rescue module
- Provide clear answers using the available educational tools
- Gain a deeper understanding of the principles of partner rescue and the use of the JAG RESCUE Kit in various teaching scenarios

Interested in this module contact us email: david@petzltechnicalinstitute.com.au

Australian Address: Unit 12 / 87 Reserve Road Artarmon, NSW, 2064 New Zealand Address: Oamaru 9400, South Island